

MILWAUKEE

DAILY

SENTINEL.

VOLUME XVII.

THE SENTINEL.

Daily, $1.50—Tri-Weekly, $4—Weekly, $1.50
INDEPENDENT ADVOCATE.

JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN,
Publishers and Proprietors.

T. D. JEWELL, M. H. WATKINS.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1860.

To The Public.

The Sentinel, having double the circulation in the United States, than twice that of any other paper here, perfectly deserves the name of Advocate.
Mr. B. Brightman, who established his own interest, was a man of the country. The Daily Sentinel, especially when he can do so in the same spirit, will be a better paper, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

There is no room, but room for more.

See Our Subscribers, page 469.

THE SENTINEL on the Printed Address Books, the time to which you have paid. For instance, 240000, means 240000 names on the books. The Sentinel can claim that label, as by doing so they will be surely posted, and if they wish to, can render the Sentinel even more valuable.

The Sentinel is the only paper in the time paid for the same, and no paper is sent unless the money accompanies the order.

JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN.

See Our Telegraph, &c., see Fourth Page, 222.

THE CHARLESTON CONVENTION.

Adjournment and no Nomination!

The Charleston Convention, after ten days' protracted session, came to an abrupt conclusion yesterday morning. Finding it impossible to reconcile the conflicting views of the different factions, to or bring about any agreement, as to a candidate or platform, between the North and the South, the Charleston Convention adjourned in despair, to meet again at Baltimore, on the 16th of June. The struggle between the friends and the opponents of Douglas occupied the time and attention of the delegates, up to the time of adjournment, to the exclusion of everything else.

The quarrel about the platform was a secondary matter. Indeed, the South would have ignored the question of platform altogether, had their wishes been gratified in the selection of a candidate. But finding the North determined to nominate Douglas, or nobody, the South was equally resolved to choose a platform of their own.

Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial.

CHARLESTON, May 1, 9 A. M.

The bolt is very serious, and indeed it is to be regretted that it will not be represented in the Southerners' Convention, together with New York, Oregon and California, and other Northern States. The Douglas Convention will, of course, nominate him.

The South will care for the cause of the association movement, and are evidently only waiting to keep their courage up.

To say that the men who have left do not represent the sentiments of their states, is absurd, as the seceders are more than very highest social and political, and have always been a controlling influence.

The enthusiasm in behalf of the independence movement is tremendous, and with proper nominiations, will sweep every Southern State into the Confederacy, and have a decided and wary, and will be governed by the action of the Douglas men. The latter are just about assembling, while the former will not formally organize till noon.

Special Dispatch to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

CHARLESTON, April 30—12 P. M.

It is probable that all the Southern delegations will have withdrawn in the course of a day or two, together with two Northern delegations, and the hards of the New York delegation.

Thus the Democratic party broken up, the machine smashed, and a new party in progress of formation.

It is reported that the Douglas men are in a great majority, and will be made to bring about a reconciliation, but the Radicals are passing.

The Radicals had told him (defendant) he was the last person out of his office that night previous.

Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign. They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the defendant was the last person out of his office that night previous. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant told him, the night of the fire, that it originated in the Advertiser office, and E. P. Carter, that he was told by the defendant that it originated in Clark & Faxon's office.

The prosecution had endeavored to show that the fire originated in the office of the Sovereign.

They have also endeavored to show that the statements of Mr. Andrews in regard to the origin of the fire were contradictory. Mr. G. F. Bartt testified that Mr. Andrews declared the fire originated in Clark & Faxon's office. W. C. Allen testified that the next morning after the fire, the defendant had told him it originated in the office of the Advertiser, and also that the

